

Subject: ChainTek 骏泰联合

Source: Daily Express

Date: 01 November 2012

DAILY EXPRESS

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

SMALL COMPANIES ROUNDUP

CHINA CHAINTEK UNITED, which provides logistics services to Chinese manufacturers, jumped 31½p to 240p as it forecast annual results would be well up on market expectations.

Transport software supplier Tracsis accelerated 11½p to 145p as the company gave a bullish outlook alongside annual figures showing pre-tax profit soaring 169 per cent to £3million.

Leisure and retail investment firm Brainspark gained 0.38p to 5½p as it took majority ownership of Italian theme park builder Sipiem.

Software supplier Scisys rose 1p to 59½p after it bought German space software consultancy MakaluMedia Internet & Engineering Services for €2.3million (£1.9million). A near 48-per-cent jump in half-year profits to £604,000 helped internet telephony services provider Coms ring up a 0.05p rise to ½p.

Industrial oil refiner Hydrodec flowed 0.38p north to 10½p after boardroom buying.

Speculators piled in to accident management company Helphire Group, 0.8p up at 2.14p.

An 86-per-cent rise in annual profit to £1.25million boosted oil services group Getech 2p to 51½p.

North Sea-focused Xcite Energy was pumped up 8p to 103¼p as broker Liberum Capital began coverage with a 242p price target.